

New Surveillance Audiometry Training

Surveillance Audiometry and Hearing Conservation - Full Course (2 days)

Please contact PROHMS for more details. £420 ex VAT.

Attendees will receive comprehensive guidance and training enabling their understanding of providing a successful hearing conservation programme. The syllabus recommended by the British Society of Audiology (BSA), The Health & Safety Executive (HSE) 'The control of noise at work regulations 2005, plus industry specific requirements will form the basis of the course content.

Surveillance Audiometry and Hearing Conservation - Refresher (1 day)

Please contact PROHMS for more details. £245 ex VAT.

Attendees will receive general updating of their current skills and knowledge to provide screening audiometry in the workplace as an occupational health professional. It will include a mix of theory and practical tasks.

The training will include both theory and practical work, by the end of this course you will:

1. Have a basic understanding of Acoustics
 2. Have an understanding of the Ear and Threshold of Hearing
 3. Understand Noise-Induced Hearing Loss and Social Handicap
 4. Have an understanding of why employees require Personal Hearing Protection
 5. Understand the importance of Monitoring Audiometry and an understanding of the Audio Regulations
 6. Have an understanding of Methods of Air-Conduction Screening Audiometry without Masking
 7. Have an understanding of Recording Audiogram Categorisation
 8. Understand the importance of an Organisation of Audiometric Programme
 9. Undergo a Practical Examination/Competences
-

Venue

To be confirmed. For more information please contact Julie on 01484 427955 or email: julie.hughes@prohms.com